TRAUB LIEBERMAN

SERVICES

Complex & Multi-District Litigation

Traub Lieberman has long been recognized for its service in complex and multi-district litigation cases.

When it comes to complex and multi-district litigation, the stakes are very high. Whether the case involves parallel disputes in both state and federal courts, or simultaneous investigations or audits by federal and state authorities, Traub Lieberman is experienced in representing our clients effectively both inside and outside the courtroom.

Traub Lieberman also has experience working as lead counsel, liaison counsel on defense coordinating committees and coordinating the work of multiple firms located in diverse regions of the country. Communication and coordination between these firms is absolutely critical for a successful result. Traub Lieberman attorneys not only excel in developing a coordinated strategy, but know how to work together with all parties in a collaborative environment. With three offices located along the eastern seaboard, and with corresponding counsel throughout the country, Traub Lieberman attorneys are flexible to meet the needs of the most demanding litigation.

© Traub Lieberman Straus & Shrewsberry LLP