Rina Clemens is a partner in the firm's Palm Beach Gardens office. She is an accomplished trial lawyer who focuses her practice on tort litigation, including defense of employment matters, premises liability, products liability, commercial liability, general liability, and trucking and transportation matters. Strategy-driven in her practice and a firm believer in the critical importance of meticulous preparation to effective advocacy, Rina defends and advances the interests of insureds in federal and state courts throughout the State of Florida.

Providing her clients with clear communication and unwavering effort, Rina develops and implements proactive strategies designed to minimize risk and maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome.

Rina is a respected leader in the local legal community and Palm Beach County at large. She has served on the Board of Directors for various legal and civic organizations, such as Children's Home Society, the Suncoast Foundation, the North County Section of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, and the Craig S. Barnard chapter of the American Inns of Court.

Rina was the 2019-2020 President of the Palm Beach County Chapter for the Florida Association for Women Lawyers. Her colleagues have recognized her as a Leader in the Law, and she was named a Top Attorney in the field of Personal Injury by Palm Beach Illustrated magazine, and she was recognized in the Best Lawyers in America©, 2021 Edition in the field of Personal Injury Litigation-Defense.

A graduate of Cornell University who earned her law degree from Florida Coastal School of Law, Rina spends her time away from work with her family, practicing yoga, and traveling.
