Insurance & Risk Management

Insurers require counsel who have the knowledge, experience and resources to deliver timely, thoughtful guidance and robust advocacy in a wide range of matters. The attorneys who serve the insurance industry need to understand insurers' unique business needs as well as the constantly changing legal and regulatory landscape in which they conduct that business.

For nearly a quarter of a century, the attorneys at Traub Lieberman have distinguished themselves among insurers, agents, brokers, claim managers, third-party administrators and underwriters for the comprehensive, insightful representation they provide and the efficiency and responsiveness with which they provide it.

Our insurance and risk management practice group is comprised of lawyers whose diverse set of skills and talents facilitates the protection and advancement of our clients' interests. Whether regulatory, compliance, program design or litigation, Traub Lieberman's acumen and experience serving the insurance industry are unmatched.

When complex coverage disputes, bad faith claims or other contested matters arise, our coverage lawyers stand ready to quickly identify the issues, offer clear and informed opinions, and develop strategies designed to obtain the most favorable result. By taking the time to understand each client's operational and legal needs, we can rapidly respond to claims and disputes as they arise while simultaneously implementing creative and cost-effective solutions to minimize risk and liability.
