TRAUB LIEBERMAN

SERVICES

Commercial Litigation

Commercial Litigation encompasses breach of contract claims between companies, individuals, vendors, 3rd parties. It also includes equitable claims involving business activities including promissory estoppel cases. From a Real Estate perspective it includes litigation arising from the purchase and/or sale of real estate and landlord/tenant issues. Our practice includes litigating shareholder disputes, dissolutions, enforcement of shareholder agreements and/or operating agreement, enforcement of restrictive covenants in employment agreements, failure of a company to provide books and records and accounting actions.

© Traub Lieberman Straus & Shrewsberry LLP