A partner in the firm's New York and Connecticut offices and an accomplished litigator, Lisa Rolle has spent her entire career passionately fighting to protect and advance the interests of her clients. She consistently obtains positive outcomes through her meticulous preparation, commitment to maintaining the highest ethical standards, and providing loyal, steadfast client service. These personal characteristics and her professional achievements have earned Lisa an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell.

Lisa defends matters involving New York labor law, premises liability, products liability, transportation, legal malpractice, and construction. She has obtained favorable verdicts in numerous jurisdictions in New York and Connecticut and has briefed and argued appeals before the First and Second Departments of the Appellate Division of the State of New York.

Active in several professional organizations, Lisa is a member of Claims and Litigation Management Alliance, where she was on the steering committee for the CLM Women's Forum, currently serves as the chair of its Retail, Restaurant and Hospitality Advisory Board, and is a frequent lecturer at the CLM Annual Conference, as well as for various insurance carriers nationwide.

As a member of the Defense Research Institute, Lisa served on the steering committee for the annual retail conference. She is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the National Association of Professional Women as well.

A graduate, cum laude, of Fairleigh Dickinson University, Lisa earned her law degree from Pace University School of Law. In addition to her professional activities, Lisa is also committed to her community, having served on the Advisory Board of the Yorktown Youth Court and holding several leadership positions in the Yorktown PTA. She currently serves as a Trustee on the Yorktown Central School District Board of Education.

When not serving her clients, Lisa enjoys spending time with her family.
