

May 31, 2019

Summary Judgment for New Jersey Snow Removal Contractor in Personal Injury Case

Related Attorneys: Gregory S. Pennington

Partner Gregory S. Pennington and associate Jessica L. Lentini, of the firm's New Jersey office, obtained summary judgment in favor of our client, a snow removal contractor. The case involved personal injury claims by a plaintiff who slipped and fell in the parking lot of a condominium complex.

Plaintiff filed suit against our client and the condominium complex, and the condominium complex filed cross-claims against our client. We were granted summary judgment on the grounds that our client did not breach its contractual duty according to the terms of the snow removal contract. We obtained a dismissal of the plaintiff's complaint and all cross-claims filed against our client by the condominium complex.