Jud Reddington

PARTNER

Jud focuses his practice on general liability and insurance defense litigation, providing his clients with tenacious representation, clear communication, and an unwavering focus on achieving their objectives.

A partner in the firm's Connecticut office, Jud M. Reddington works closely and collaboratively with his insurance industry clients, providing them with tenacious representation, clear communication, and an unwavering focus on achieving their objectives.

Jud focuses his practice on general liability and insurance defense litigation, including professional liability, first and third-party claims, premises liability, and auto/trucking accidents. Before joining Traub Lieberman, Jud practiced at a regional litigation firm where he gained substantial experience handling insurance defense and coverage issues and worked for a firm representing mortgage lenders and third-party administrators in default services. Jud 's background also includes commercial liability matters with a focus on creditor's rights, Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) litigation, and commercial foreclosure litigation.

A graduate of the University of Connecticut, Jud earned his law degree from Western New England School of Law, where he received the CALI Award for excellence in Military Law and served as an intern for the judges of Barnstable County District Court in Barnstable, Massachusetts.

When not serving his clients, Jud enjoys watching sports, reading, and hanging out with his wife and three children.
