

NEWS & EVENTS

April 13, 2020

COVID-19 Firm Update

Traub Lieberman recognizes the disruption to life and business due to the impact of COVID-19. Our priority is the health and well-being of our firm members, clients and community.

The firm remains fully operational, with attorneys having the ability to work remotely without interruption during these extraordinary events unfolding across the country. All offices are continuing to support clients and staffing of matters as part of the firm's business continuity plan.

