

Brandon L. Williams

ASSOCIATE

Brandon primarily practices in the areas of first-party insurance defense, premises liability, insurance coverage litigation, and general liability defense.

An associate in the firm's St. Petersburg office, Brandon Lewis-Williams brings a unique knowledge base and an intimate understanding of the law as a litigator with local and international legal experience. Brandon's wide array of knowledge and experience enables him to provide his clients with sound guidance and creative solutions when navigating through complex legal issues.

Brandon primarily practices in the areas of first-party insurance defense, premises liability, insurance coverage litigation, and general liability defense. Prior to joining the firm, Brandon worked at Avego Abogados—a highly regarded and well-established international law firm in Madrid, Spain. He also served on the MOOC Education Innovation and Advisory Committee established by the Department of Education of La Comunidad de Madrid. After returning home to Florida, Brandon shifted his legal career to civil litigation and worked for a firm in Tampa, Florida, where he represented clients in cases involving residential and commercial property damage.

A graduate of the University of Central Florida, Brandon earned his Juris Doctor degree and Certificate in International Law from Stetson University College of Law. There, he was recognized for his volunteer work and leadership with the William F. Blews Pro Bono Award and the Stetson Law Leadership Award for serving as Vice President of the International Law Society and Co-Chair of Stetson's Alumni Committee.

When not serving clients and spending time in the office, Brandon enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing basketball, traveling, and serving as President of the Lewis Williams Education Foundation, a not-for-profit organization named after his late father.
