

Justyn Verzillo

ASSOCIATE

Justyn focuses his practice on liability issues, such as construction, commercial auto litigation and trucking, premises liability, no-fault arbitrations, insurance law, and general liability.

Justyn is committed to working hard, maintaining a strong attention to the detail, and focusing on the client's objectives. His practice experience includes a wide variety of liability issues such as auto litigation, premises liability, no-fault arbitrations and insurance law—with experience handling matters involving general liability. He has represented clients in numerous no-fault trials and no-fault arbitrations in New York.

While earning his degree at Pace Law School, Justyn spent time working as a clerk small firms, with a primary focus on drafting and filing summary judgment motions on liability in motor vehicle accidents, as well as threshold motions under New York Insurance Law 5102(d). Justyn also spent time assisting in trial preparation, drafting of contracts, filing of mechanics liens, and legal memorandums on real estate and construction matters. Justyn also spent two years of his practice working for a Plaintiff's law firm, handling the aforementioned liability issues and specializing in no-fault trials, no-fault arbitrations, and the settlement of cases.

Justyn is an avid sports fan, who also focuses on personal mental and physical fitness. He takes great pride in being a big brother to his four younger siblings.
