

Peter Iannace

ASSOCIATE

Peter focuses his practice on general liability, product liability, and commercial matters.

Peter Iannace is an associate in the Hawthorne office, where he focuses his practice on general liability, product liability, and commercial matters. He has experience conducting all phases of litigation from commencement through trial.

Prior to joining Traub Lieberman, Peter was an associate at a White Plains-based law firm where his practice focused on premises and workers compensation litigation, as well as commercial and private real estate matters. He also previously led his own firm, where his practice specialized in real estate, litigation, and criminal law. Peter earned his J.D. from St. John's University School of Law and his undergraduate degree in History from Fordham University.

Peter is an avid outdoorsman. When not practicing law, he enjoys spending time fishing, hiking, and enjoying nature.
