

Steven A. Hollis

ASSOCIATE

A strategic litigator who prides himself on preparation and professionalism for his clients, Steven focuses his practice on first-party property and third-party liability claims.

Steven Hollis is an Associate in the firm's St. Petersburg office, where he dedicates himself to defending first-party and third-party property insurance cases. Steven employs a thorough, detail-oriented approach to litigation and brings a dynamic work ethic to ensure that every client's case is handled and resolved in the most effective and efficient manner possible.

Born and raised in St. Petersburg, Steven graduated from the Warrington College of Business Administration at the University of Florida. He earned his law degree from the University of Miami School of Law, where he was a member of the International and Comparative Law Review and Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board. While in law school, Steven completed an internship at the Florida Supreme Court, co-authored a published law review article, and competed in a national moot court competition. He returned to his hometown to start his legal career as an Assistant State Attorney. As a state prosecutor, Steven handled thousands of criminal cases, from intake to resolution, and gained valuable motion practice and trial experience in both County and Circuit Court.

When not serving his clients, Steven enjoys playing tennis, rooting for the Tampa Bay Rays, and spending time with friends and family.

 ST. PETERSBURG, FL

 (727) 898-8100

 shollis@tlsslaw.com

SERVICES

Bad Faith & Extra-Contractual

Construction Law

General Liability

Insurance Coverage / Reinsurance

Premises Liability

EDUCATION

- University of Miami School of Law, J.D.
- University of Florida, B.S.B.A.
 - Major: Economics, Minor: Classical Studies

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Florida