TRAUB LIEBERMAN

April 12, 2022

Traub Lieberman Associate Anthony Hatzilabrou Co-Authors Article, “When Government Agencies Come Calling,” Featured in CLM Magazine

BY: Anthony Hatzilabrou

Government agencies, such as the Department of Justice (DOJ), Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), are tasked with investigating and prosecuting violations of civil and criminal laws. In order to carry out their mandates, these agencies may issue requests for information seeking documents or testimony regarding an individual's conduct or a company's business practices.

READ THE FULL ARTICLE

© Traub Lieberman Straus & Shrewsberry LLP