An Associate in the firm's New Jersey office, Emily Velcamp focuses her practice on personal injury, general liability, and commercial litigation. She brings forth a meticulous attention to detail and a high level of organization to each matter she handles.

Prior to joining the firm, Emily served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Mara E. Zazzali-Hogan, J.S.C., of the Superior Court of New Jersey. In this capacity, Emily worked on a variety of personal injury matters and handled all of the Complex Business Litigation Program matters filed in Monmouth County. She also served as a court appointed mediator where she conducted mediation sessions for small claims matters.

Emily graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick with a major in Criminal Justice and a minor in Political Science. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Widener University Delaware Law School. While in law school, Emily served on the Executive Board of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

A Monmouth County native, Emily enjoys going to the beach and spending her summers on the Jersey Shore.
