

December 28, 2022

Traub Lieberman Partner Ryan Jones Provides Testimony Before Florida Senate Committees

Related Attorneys: C. Ryan Jones

On December 12, Traub Lieberman Partner Ryan Jones provided testimony before two Florida Senate Committees during a Special Session to address the insurance crisis in Florida. Following the Special Session, the Florida Senate passed Senate Bill 2-A, which was designed to improve the property insurance marketplace for homeowners. Among other changes, the bill eliminates the one-way attorney's fees provision in favor of insureds for lawsuits over disputed property claims and sets prerequisites to filing bad faith lawsuits. The bill was recently signed into law by Florida Governor Ron DeSantis.