Related Attorneys: Lisa M. Rolle, Nicole Verzillo

In a matter brought in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Bronx County, Traub Lieberman Partners Lisa Rolle and Nicole Verzillo won summary judgment in favor of the Defendant in a premises liability matter. The Defendant sought to renew the court's decision dated 2023, which denied the Defendant's motion for summary judgment. In this premises liability matter, the Court held that the Defendant did not own, maintain, manage, or control the sidewalk where the Plaintiff allegedly fell and, as a result, the Defendant did not breach any duty to the Plaintiff. As a result, the Court awarded summary judgment to the Defendant and all claims and cross-claims asserted were dismissed.
