

Andrew J. Silvers

ASSOCIATE

Andrew bears a competitive attitude, strong work ethic, and driven approach into his case work with an emphasis on thoroughness and attention to detail.

Andrew J. Silvers is an associate in the firm's St. Petersburg office with a focus on first-party property, including commercial litigation, construction law, and general liability. He is a competitive litigator who takes great pride in his advocacy skills.

Andrew has experience in trademark law, employment counsel, and personal injury defense. Earlier in his legal career, Andrew's litigation focus was in return of personal property and dog-bite defense.

Andrew earned his law degree from Western Michigan University, Cooley Law School (Tampa Bay) and his undergraduate degree from the University of South Florida.

In his free time, Andrew enjoys playing ice hockey and traveling to various destinations with his wife.

 ST. PETERSBURG, FL

 (727) 898-8100

 asilvers@tlsslaw.com

SERVICES

Bad Faith & Extra-Contractual

Claims Management

Commercial Litigation

Construction Law

General Liability

Insurance Coverage / Reinsurance

Premises Liability

EDUCATION

- Western Michigan University, Thomas M. Cooley Law School, J.D.
- University of South Florida, B.A.
- St. Petersburg College, A.A.

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Florida

COURT ADMISSIONS

- U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida