Taylor Rathwell is an associate in the firm's Chicago Office, where she focuses her practice on insurance coverage matters.

Taylor earned her J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. While in law school, she served as Co-President of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Society and participated as a member of the ABA Negotiation Team, earning recognition as a Regional Finalist and a Quarterfinalist at the 2024 National Finals Competition. She also served as Content and Research Editor on the Executive Board of the Children's Legal Rights Journal.

In addition to her academic achievements, Taylor participated in the Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI), where she worked with CARPLS to operate a legal hotline providing legal guidance to qualifying Cook County residents.

Prior to joining Traub Lieberman, Taylor practiced at a litigation firm where she handled insurance coverage and tort matters. She also has experience with subrogation, further strengthening her understanding of the insurance industry and related litigation.
